EASTLAKE COMMUNITY FAIR

and

AMERICAN MUSIC FESTIVAL

Saturday and Sunday, September 11 & 12

Rogers Field, Eastlake and Louisa,

AND at Newton Street Park, Fairview & Newton

what about the Eastlake Fair?

SOON you will hear a knock on your door-- a neighbor. He will say "Have you heard about the Fair...the American Music Festival...The People's Park dedication and pig roast picnic...?", and he will ask you something more also...

"HOW WOULD YOU like to be involved?" It's a simple question that could be answered with a simple yes or no; but a simple "no" only enhances the alienation that city-living can foster.

TO ANSWER "YES, I would like to be involved says you might be interested in a community effort that is rewarding both for you and for others here in Eastlake.

FOLLOWING are some ideas of how your "yes" answer could be implemented:

1. Get busy and make some home-made items (i.e., jams, potholders, crafts, candles, crocheted and knitted items, etc.) and purchase for the small fee of $3.50 a booth at the fair. (There is space enough for 120 booths, 8' x 8'.)

Ask a neighbor to join you.

How about your family having a booth?

2. Encourage your children to make things, so that they might display their creativity.

3. Volunteer to be a monitor at the Fair and-or American Music Festival.

4. donate white elephants, rummage items to Eastlake Community Council to sell, proceeds to go to the Council fund for future activities. (Call Sandy Ritz, EA2-4258)
5. Reserve the weekend of September 11 and 12 so that you can attend; talk up the event with your neighbors.
6. If you are in the medical profession, volunteer your time to man the first aid station at the Fair and music festival.
7. ----- up to you!

While the Fair Committee is making arrangements with the city departments, you can be getting yourself ready for the fun-part of the FAIR!

YES--THE CONDOMINIUM IN ROANOKE BAY...

You've still been hearing the pile drivers and given up thinking about stopping the building?

It's going up anyway and "you can't fight city hall?"

You decided to give a dollar, because if Roanoke Reef wins out, it wouldn't be much of a loss to you anyway?

Hearken, friends--during the last two weeks, two significant things have occurred.

Last week, someone in the neighborhood noticed that pilings were being driven at a slant into Fairview East, which is platted underwater in Roanoke Bay. The Engineering Department was notified, and Roanoke Reef Associates had to apply for a street-use permit.

The Board of Public Works heard the request last Wednesday, the 4th, and also heard our lawyer Hal Green give our objections to the building. The general sentiment of the Board was to deny the permit, but the final decision was held off one week.

We learned this week that Roanoke Reef withdrew their application for a street use permit, which means that they will have to take out 12 pilings--which will cost time and money. They now have less than three months to "make satisfactory progress" in construction in order to comply with the city building permit.

WE ALSO MET WITH Ed Standish from the Department of Ecology, and Charlie Roe and Bob Jensen from the Atty. General's office, to discuss the role of their agency in seeing that the 1971 Shorelines Act is complied with. The building would clearly be in violation of the Shorelines Act. We have the Weldon Robison and friends have set up 3 more bottle collection stations around the lake. Plans are going ahead for a permanent recycling stn on Fairview for glass, tin, aluminum, paper... Want a station on your block? He's at 2331 Fairview E.

Department's support, and appreciate their clarification of the law for us;

We're encouraged to know that people in Eastlake have been willing to put their money into the pot along with their neighbors to work toward something that in the beginning looked pretty hopeless,

but
WE STILL NEED MONEY. $450 has come in. The original agreement was $600 to the lawyer to prepare a lawsuit and articles of incorporation for Eastlake Community Council.

There are about 2,000 people in the Eastlake area. $1 or $5 from each person.....

If you haven't already, will you join your neighbors in this effort?

If we lose the case, we at least will have tried, and perhaps gotten to know each other a little in the process.

If we win, every person who contributed, was part of winning-- that's COMMUNITYPOWER!!!
